The Republican party had no andidate for Assemblyman, as I view it. Mr Baker, the alleged candidate, received 3,449 votes. Of course, Fickett's election excited some forms, and the following year Mr. Odell was up here trying to smooth matters over calling attention to the necessity of electing a Republican United States Senator, and so on. And the Republican State Committee mixed up in the matter, and then pronounced fudgment in favor matter, and then pronounced fudgment in favor matter, and then pronounced fudgment in favor and propose to execute the reaction of the marries of the mone was time spread the alarm all through the best meighborhood, and armed men are in common of things out there to-night, determined to provent the arrest of any more of their people. Booth, being afraid that he might not be renominated if the County Convention was held in September, as usual, had the convention held in June. This is contrary to all precedent. But Mr. Booth had his way and has been nominated. At this same convention also they nominated Charles S. Johnson, of Plattsburg, for Assemblyman. Mr. Johnson has lived in this county only a few years, and probably is not acquainted with its conditions. He is a lawyer and partner of Mr. Kellogs, son of Judge Kellogs, of the Supreme Court

The loss of water in the city of New-York due to leakage and preventable waste is per-haps more than half of the to'al quantity of water flowing through the male. An average of twenty-five or thirty gallons : day for each person represents an abundant supply for all purposes, including the inevitable waste not due to leaks in the system. If these secrtions are correct, the present water supply of the city, which is stated by the Department to be 225, 000,000 gailens a day, with a reserve of a hundred and fifty days' supply, is enough for a population of at least 0, 1000. It follows, therefore, that our anxiety about our water supply for the future is superfluous; that we have plenty of water to mai-tain a reasonably high pressure throughout the system, while f. r. nishing an ample supply for the deaning f. streets and the flushing of sewers, and that as the population increases the city can get 'ncreased revenues from greatly reduced wat:
